MUSIC AND THEATRE SKILLS SUMMER SCHEME

ARE YOU 12-18 AND INTERESTED IN THEATRE SKILLS/CAREERS?

NI Opera are running a FREE weekly workshop at the Duncairn Arts Centre in North Belfast, where you can come and find out about all the different theatre and music skills used by theatre professionals to bring a show to the stage.

From set design to storytelling, hair and make-up to choreography, character and costume to music making, our creative teams will take you through all the elements needed to put a show together. All interests and abilities are welcome.

DUNCAIRN ARTS CENTRE

EACH MONDAY, 9.30-1PM FROM 17 JULY TO 21 AUGUST

Every week a different theatre or music professional will lead a workshop where you'll learn about some of the skills they use every day in their work. You'll also get the chance to try out the skills you learn in a friendly group setting.

This FREE summer scheme will be taking place in the Duncairn Arts Centre each Monday from 9.30am to 1pm, with a free breakfast, snack and lunch provided too.

NI Opera was founded in 2010 and is the national opera company here in Northern Ireland, creating full opera performances, musical theatre, pop-up musical events and cabaret across the country. The company recently won 'Best Production' at The Irish Times Irish Theatre Awards for our 2022 production of 'Into The Woods' – the first time a musical has won this award in 25 years.

This free summer scheme has been made possible through funding from the Arts Council of Northern Ireland's 'Articulate' programme and the support of the Garfield Weston Foundation.
